2022 APT APC BOARD COURSE (for repeating candidates)

On Line Zoom Launch: 1 June 2022: 17:00 – 18:30

Register in advance for this Webinar: Registration Link

We at APT are very sorry to hear that you have been unable to demonstrate competence in the SAICA 2021 Assessment of Professional Competence (APC). We share your disappointment as we know just how hard you worked to overcome the challenges of 2021, but we need to remain positive and focussed on overcoming this final hurdle.

“Success never lasts, failure is never fatal.... courage is the only thing that counts” Winston Churchill

You are not the first person to have failed to demonstrate competence in the “Final Board Exam”. There are literally thousands of CAs who have experienced this failure, re written, passed the assessment and gone on to become highly successful CAs. You must not let the outcome of one 8 hour assessment define your future. History has shown that repeat candidates can with commitment and hard work, achieve Honours on their second attempt.

You need to believe in yourself and your abilities. You have successfully completed an undergraduate programme, a post graduate programme and the SAICA Initial Test of Competence. You owe it to yourself to absorb the trauma and then pick yourself up and plan for your success in the APC in 2022, which is within reach.

- If you have a valid Certificate of Completion for a Professional Programme dated 2020 or 2021, you are still, under current regulations, eligible to write the 2022 APC without further study. However, we believe that a repeating candidate should follow a structured approach in self-development to pass in 2022. Our statistics for prior year’s repeat candidates clearly indicate that those candidates who participated successfully in our Board Course had far better success rates in the APC when compared to candidates who did not attempt a Programme or who attempted our Programme but failed the Programme. To optimise your chance of success in the 2022 APC, you should register for our 2022 APT APC Board Course as detailed below.
- Sadly if your most recent Certificate of Completion is dated 2019, the validity of your Professional Programme Completion has expired and you would have to complete and Pass a full Professional Programme before being allowed to write the APC again.
- Registration for our 2022 Programme is open at REGISTRATION LINK
